

Customs Entry Tools, Shipment Notes, and More Added to GlobalLink

by Michelle Kelley - Monday, May 01, 2017

GlobalLink, our tracking and reporting site, has several new tools now available to international clients. Click each screenshot to enlarge.

New Features for Brokerage Clients

We've deployed a suite of new data views for our Customs brokerage clients.

The new Brokerage section of GlobalLink gives users the power of visibility to more Customs entry details than ever before. Users can now track, sort, and filter multiple entries at a time or drill down for a more granular view of a single entry.

View declaration, commercial invoice, and other entry specific data, as well as notes logged by your Mohawk customer support team—all within the new Brokerage section.

If you prefer a broader view of your brokerage activity, then check out the Brokerage Dashboard, which displays monthly exam fees, entries with post summary corrections, and other types of data in chart form. You can dive deeper into the data behind the charts by simply clicking on them.

Enhancements for All Users

All GlobalLink users now have the ability to see notes for shipments in our system. This is similar to notes feature described in the Brokerage Detail view (above).

Additionally, every user now has access to the documents that accompany a shipment via the Documents tab in the Shipment Detail view.
