

Hong Kong Issues Tropical Cyclone Warning

by Michelle Kelley - Monday, July 23, 2012

Client Alert

The Hong Kong national weather service issued a severe weather warning this morning for incoming tropical cyclone Vicente. By law, this warning level requires all offices, schools, and nonessential government departments to shut down.

Please be advised that shipment delays are expected due to the severe weather.

International Business Times: Typhoon Vicente Sweeps Through South China

If you have questions about this alert, please contact your Mohawk customer representative.

<http://mohawkglobal.com/global-news/hong-kong-issues-tropical-cyclone-warning/>