

USTR Announces Proposed List of Additional Section 301 Tariffs

by Danielle Leonard - Wednesday, July 11, 2018

On Tuesday, July 10, the Trump administration announced a list of additional 10 percent tariffs on $200 billion in Chinese goods.

This new list contains 6,031 tariff lines and is, “a result of China’s retaliation and failure to change its practices,” according to U.S. Trade Representative Robert Lighthizer.

These tariffs will not go into effect immediately, as they must undergo a two-month review process, with public hearings that will take place August 20-23.
